This support group offers help with resumes, interviewing skills, job search sites and best possible companies hiring, information on jobs available in the community, community resource information, some computer skills, a blog for members to join, lots of great networking and an ad in the parish bulletin for the type of skill a job seeker has. Each job seeker is given a number to protect their identity and to screen people who are looking to grow their own businesses. Most of all they offer prayers, love and support.
